

2018 Statewide Conference for North Carolina's Nonprofit Sector September 12-14

Sheraton Imperial Hotel & Convention Center, RTP, NC

The premier conference for NC's nonprofit sector, this annual three-day event, presented by the North Carolina Center for Nonprofits, engages the state's network of nonprofit leaders to share ideas, exchange solutions, and collaborate together.

The Center's Statewide Conference attracts 600 staff, board members, and volunteers from across the state, as well as foundation trustees and staff, corporate giving officers, consultants, and vendors who work with nonprofits. The event features nationally-known speakers; sessions on best practices and the latest sector trends; Deep-Dive intensives on fundraising and legal compliance; individual coaching sessions; free Curbside Consulting from nonprofit consultants and practitioners; and excellent networking opportunities.

2017 Statewide Conference Highlights

- 96% Rated the conference as "excellent" or "good"
- 4.5 Overall rating on a 5-point scale where 5 is "excellent"

Nonprofit leaders at the Center's Statewide Conference are always eager to share ideas and solutions.

I loved the diverse topics. Thank you for continuing to provide quality work sessions and speakers and for being such gracious and warm hosts. I look forward to attending this conference each year.
