Statewide Conference for North Carolina Nonprofits

Partners: Duke Nonprofit Management Program & North Carolina Center for Nonprofits
November 27-28, 2018 - Research Triangle Park, NC

North Carolina Center for Nonprofits

Participants at the 2018 North Carolina Center for Nonprofits statewide conference may apply 6-12 hours of credit toward the Duke University Certificate in Nonprofit Management. The Conference is the premier annual event for North Carolina's nonprofit sector, drawing 700-800 nonprofit decision-makers from across the state, along with foundation trustees and staff, business leaders, consultants, vendors, and corporate giving officers, who work with nonprofits. Participants receive exposure to national cutting-edge speakers, access to high quality information, and important connections with peers, grant makers, and others.

Duke Nonprofit Management Program

Participants who attend the North Carolina Center for Nonprofits Conference workshops may apply 6-12 hours per day toward the Duke Certificate in Nonprofit Management. Sessions will be classified as General Electives. A fee of $25 per course credit hour will apply. For questions about how to register and apply the credit hours, call the Duke Nonprofit Management Program at 919-681-1025.
